

00 Errata, Rules Clarifications and additional FAQs (V1 June 2022)

Please note an updated rulebook was released along with this Errata and FAQ document that clarifies a number of points especially related to setup.

Errata

1) Tactics card: Righteous Fury & Forbidden Knowledge: The icons are incorrect; please refer to the text explanations on the cards and in the player references for the correct effect.

2) Mission: Dedicated Research - 'One per turn' should be 'Once per turn'.

3) Rules:  means "Steal 1 resource of your choice (K/R/W) from the player of your choice"

4) On page 28 of the rulebook, the solo rules states that the player should remove the Preferential Treatment mission card. This is a misprint, and you should instead remove the Underworld Map mission card.

Rules Clarifications

1) Placement of scouts can only be done from your reserves.

2) Tactics cards are single use and discarded after use. If the deck ever runs out, immediately shuffle the discard pile into a new deck.

3) Extra action tokens are single use. Discard them to take an extra action. You may use as many as you wish during a single turn. Remember that the Collect restrictions as described on page 9 of the rulebook still apply even if you have more actions.

4) The Fruit token is removed from the board during the Cleanup Phase.

5) When you are instructed to take an action from something, it means an additional action.

FAQs

1) Q: Can you collect from a location with a flipped beast

Technically you can collect from a location with a non-flipped beast too. However, whenever a beast is present REGARDLESS OF FLIP/NOT FLIPPED, when you collect you do not get the reward from that location

2) Q: The Ridge. Move a Beast & Flip it. Does the beast perform its ability after the move, before the flip?

Yes

3) Q: Who decides what happens to scouts when a player moves a beast during their turn?

The current holder of the first player token, as always

4) Q: How does the Observatory work? Can a player collect these resources each turn?

Yes, it works exactly as described in the player reference and on the token.

5) Q: is the Graveyard part of the 'Main Board'

No, the Main Board refers to all locations and excavation sites
